Donation/default.aspx?lang=1](https://www.stjohnscathedral.org.hk/Donation/default.aspx?lang=1)

Welcome to all who worship here today. Visiting communicants, of whatever Christian tradition, are invited to receive communion here. No unauthorised photography, video filming or sound recording during the service. Please set your mobile phone to silent and refrain from using it during the service.

COLLECT

Almighty God, who caused the light of the gospel to shine throughout the world through the preaching of your servant Saint Paul: grant that we who celebrate his wonderful conversion may follow him in bearing witness to your truth; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

FIRST READING
Acts 9.1-22

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. Now as he was going along and approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, 'Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?' He asked, 'Who are you, Lord?' The reply came, 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. But get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do.' The men who were travelling with him stood speechless because they heard the voice but saw no one. Saul got up from the ground, and though his eyes were open, he could see nothing; so they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus. <sup>9</sup> For three days he was without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

Now there was a disciple in Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision, 'Ananias.' He answered, 'Here I am, Lord.' The Lord said to him, 'Get up and go to the street called Straight, and at the house of Judas look for a man of Tarsus named Saul. At this moment he is praying, and he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias come in and lay his hands on him so that he might regain his sight.' But Ananias answered, 'Lord,

I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to your saints in Jerusalem; and here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who invoke your name.' But the Lord said to him, 'Go, for he is an instrument whom I have chosen to bring my name before Gentiles and kings and before the people of Israel; I myself will show him how much he must suffer for the sake of my name.' So Ananias went and entered the house. He laid his hands on Saul and said, 'Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on your way here, has sent me so that you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit.' And immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and his sight was restored. Then he got up and was baptized, and after taking some food, he regained his strength.

For several days he was with the disciples in Damascus, and immediately he began to proclaim Jesus in the synagogues, saying, 'He is the Son of God.' All who heard him were amazed and said, 'Is not this the man who made havoc in Jerusalem among those who invoked this name? And has he not come here for the purpose of bringing them bound before the chief priests?' Saul became increasingly more powerful and confounded the Jews who lived in Damascus by proving that Jesus was the Messiah.

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

SECOND READING
Galatians 1.11-16a

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Galatians.

I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that the gospel that was proclaimed by me is not of human origin; for I did not receive it from a human source, nor was I taught it, but I received it through a revelation of Jesus Christ.

You have heard, no doubt, of my earlier life in Judaism. I was violently persecuting the church of God and was trying to destroy it. I advanced in Judaism beyond many among my people of the same age, for I was far more zealous for the traditions of my ancestors. But when God, who had set me apart before I was born and called me through his grace, was pleased to reveal his Son to me, so that I might proclaim him among the Gentiles.

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

Matthew 19.27-30

Hear the Gospel of our Lord
Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

All Glory to you, O Lord.

Peter said to Jesus, 'Look, we have left everything and followed you. What then will we have?' Jesus said to them, 'Truly I tell you, at the renewal of all things, when the Son of Man is seated on the throne of his glory, you who have followed me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or fields, for my name's sake, will receive a hundredfold, and will inherit eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, O Christ.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Lord God, you filled Paul the apostle with love for all the churches: may the sacrament we have received foster in us this love for your people, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FOR YOUR PRAYERS THIS WEEK

REFRESHMENTS

in the Li Hall
after 9.00am service

Please join us for light refreshments; a good opportunity to renew acquaintances, welcome visitors and new friends while enjoying fellowship with other parishioners.

PRAYERS FOR PEACE

It's easy to feel helpless to do anything about the wars and conflicts taking the lives of so many people in many countries. What can we do? We can pray, individually or together. For over three years a small group of parishioners has been meeting on Zoom to pray for peace. We use prayers adapted from the Iona Community in Scotland to pray for peace in the world and peace in ourselves. Join us at 8.30pm any Thursday. WhatsApp Tony Poon tssf on +852 9860 2920.

(Full-time students are eligible for a free standing activity voucher)

Song list: 《霧之光》, 《The Bright Side》, 《Dear My Friend》, 《Stars》, 《Joyful Joyful》 and more

ONCE VOCAL is a choral ensemble established in May 2025. It provides a musical platform for self-discovery, expression, and sharing. The name 'Once Vocal' is derived from LEC's 'Once Theatre.' Building on 'Once Theatre's three years of experience in large-scale public performances and its spirit of embracing new initiatives and breakthroughs, 'Once Vocal' expands the use of drama and creative arts to incorporate music.

We hope all members will remember their original purpose of joining, learn to accept themselves and others, and cherish every learning opportunity each performance brings. The name '如初' (Once) is taken from the lyrics of our original youth composition for the concert: 'Accept me as I was at the beginning, accept me for who I am, accept that flawless, unique me.'

DIOCESAN YOUTH COMMITTEE

「修•為 Pray and Work」Friday Taizé Prayer Meeting

'What are you seeking?' John 1.38

When we try to live from the trusting of faith we sometimes ask ourselves: What does God want of me? We have so many desires. Which is the path I can walk with God? - Brother Matthew

Dates: Fridays 27th February, 17th April, 26th June

Time: 8.00pm

Place: St Paul's Church Pastoral Centre,
1/F, Wah Cheong Bldg., No. 1 Glenealy, Central

Language: Cantonese

Taizé prayer originated in the small village of Taizé, located in the Burgundy region of France. The community was founded in 1940 by Brother Roger (Roger Schutz), a Swiss Protestant pastor who settled there to establish a life of prayer and communal living, particularly during the hardships of World War II.
