THEFT PREVENTION

As with any big city centre, please keep your valuables with you. If you feel unsafe at any time, please let a staff member or sidesman know.

COLLECT

Lord of all power and might, the author and giver of all good things: graft in our hearts the love of your name, increase in us true religion, nourish us with all goodness, and of your great mercy keep us in the same; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST READING

Ecclesiastes 1.2, 12-14; 2.18-23

A reading from the book of Ecclesiastes.

Vanity of vanities, says the Teacher, vanity of vanities! All is vanity.

I, the Teacher, when king over Israel in Jerusalem, applied my mind to seek and to search out by wisdom all that is done under heaven; it is an unhappy business that God has given to human beings to be busy with. I saw all the deeds that are done under the sun; and see, all is vanity and a chasing after wind.

I hated all my toil in which I had toiled under the sun, seeing that I must leave it to those who come after me —and who knows whether they will be wise or foolish? Yet they will be master of all for which I toiled and used my wisdom under the sun. This also is vanity. So I turned and gave my heart up to despair concerning all the toil of my labours under the sun, because sometimes one who has toiled with wisdom and knowledge and skill must leave all to be enjoyed by another who did not toil for it. This also is vanity and a great evil. What do mortals get from all the toil and strain with which they toil under the sun? For all their days are full of pain, and their work is a vexation; even at night their minds do not rest. This also is vanity.

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

PSALM 49.1-9

1 O hear ye this, all ye people : ponder it with your ears, all ye that dwell in the world;

2 High and low, rich and poor : one with another.

3 My mouth shall speak of wisdom : and my heart shall muse of understanding.

4 I will incline mine ear to the parable : and shew my dark speech upon the harp.

5 Wherefore should I fear in the days of wickedness : and when the wickedness of my heels compasseth me round about?

6 There be some that put their trust in their goods : and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches.

7 But no man may deliver his brother : nor make agreement unto God for him;

8 For it cost more to redeem their souls : so that he must let that alone for ever;

9 Yea, though he live long : and see not the grave.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

SECOND READING

Colossians 3.1-11

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Colossians.

If you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory. Put to death, therefore, whatever in you is earthly: fornication, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed (which is idolatry). On account of these the wrath of God is coming on those who are disobedient. These are the ways you also once followed, when you were living that life. But now you must get rid of all such things—anger, wrath, malice, slander, and abusive language from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have stripped off the old self with its practices and have clothed yourselves with the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of its creator. In that renewal there is no longer Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave and free; but Christ is all and in all!

This is the word of the Lord.
All Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING
Luke 12.13-21

Hear the Gospel of our Lord
 Jesus Christ according to Luke.

All Glory to you, O Lord.

Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, ‘Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me.’ But he said to him, ‘Friend, who set me to be a judge or arbitrator over you?’ And he said to them, ‘Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one’s life does not consist in the abundance of possessions.’ Then he told them a parable: ‘The land of a rich man produced abundantly. And he thought to himself, “What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?” Then he said, “I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.” But God said to him, “You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?” So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich towards God.’

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
All Praise to you, O Christ.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Lord God, whose Son is the true vine and the source of life, ever giving himself that the world may live: may we so receive within ourselves the power of his death and passion that, in his saving cup, we may share his glory and be made perfect in his love; for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen.

FOR YOUR PRAYERS THIS WEEK

In the worldwide Anglican Communion we pray for the Church of the Province of South East Asia and The Most Revd Ng Moon Hing, Archbishop of South East Asia & Bishop of West Malaysia.

We pray for the Province of Hong Kong Sheng Kung Hui (Anglican Province of Hong Kong & Macau); for the Most Revd Dr Paul Kwong, our archbishop and primate; and for all bishops, priests and deacons within our diocese and province.

We pray for the Church of the Transfiguration; may God teach all church members to care for the church and work with the Holy Spirit to promote the church’s development; for the youth and the parent ministries, may God lead them to pursue Christ; for the educational ministry, for the parish-and-school partnership so that they work together to spread the gospel.

Within the Cathedral Parish we pray for the Cathedral church and its various congregations, for the Dean and chaplains; for our daughter churches: Discovery Bay Church, St Stephen’s Chapel, Stanley and Emmanuel Church, Pokfulam; and their Priests in Charge. We also remember our Welcomers & Cathedral Minders, Sunday School, Discoverers, Parents and Toddlers, Education for Ministry (EfM) Courses, CLARES, Castaways, and SJC Flower Guild.

We also pray for our link Diocese of Toungoo, Myanmar; for the Rt Revd Dr Saw Shee Sho, his priests, people and ministry.

RESIDENT GUEST CHOIR IN AUGUST

During the month of August, while St John's Cathedral Choir are in summer recess, all choral services will be sung by our resident guest choir, Die Konzertisten, under the direction of our Director of Music, Felix Yeung.

Die Konzertisten (DK) is recognised as one of Hong Kong's foremost chamber choirs. DK aims to bring the finest of artistic experiences to local audiences through performances of repertoire ranging from Renaissance polyphony and Baroque masterpieces, to Romantic delicacies and newly commissioned works. The choir has collaborated with many internationally renowned artists. It is also featured frequently in Hong Kong Arts Festival. A keen advocate of Baroque music, DK formed the city's first-ever baroque orchestra, Cammer Musicus, in 2015. DK has been singing in choral services in the month of August since 2012.

CONGRATULATIONS to ADAM MOK

It is with great joy that we are able to formally announce that Adam Mok, our pastoral assistant, has been recently recommended as a postulant for training for the priesthood in the Province of HKSKH. Adam has been our pastoral assistant at St John's for the last three years and has contributed greatly to the life of the cathedral parish. His ministry has extended through the various cathedral congregations and he has been a solid colleague to the clergy pastoral team. Adam hopes to start his priestly formation at Ming Hua Theological College in September this year. He will be sorely missed by clergy and congregation alike and we wish him every blessing as his journey to ordained ministry continues.

A PRAYER FOR HONG KONG

God of all nations, whose son wept over Jerusalem and longed to gather all its inhabitants under his loving protection, grant us courage to pursue your dream for the future, and wisdom to perceive your will for today; strength to promote justice, and gentleness to be instruments of peace; wisdom to know your will, and grace to put it into practice: may goodness triumph and fear be vanquished; new life abound and love be manifest; so that all creatures are filled with your knowledge and the earth with your glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EVENING PRAYER FOR OUR CITY Seeking God in a time of trouble

Thursdays in August
8th, 15th, 22nd & 29th
starting at 7.30pm
at the Li Hall

We will be praying for peace and reconciliation

All are welcome

A MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN

Dear Brothers and Sisters of St John's,

I write this message with a heavy heart. Hong Kong has entered a period of immense conflict, division and tumult over the Extradition Bill. On the one hand, our love for Hong Kong, expressed in different ways has demonstrated our keen concerns. On the other hand, we have seen growing frustration, anger, sadness and anguish to occupy our hearts on the future of our beloved home.

Please do not lose hope. The Christian hope is rooted in the transforming power of Jesus Christ who has overcome the power of darkness and delivered us to the new light of his kingdom. It is in a time of darkness such as this that Christ's light shines the brightest. Jesus Christ is grieving with us at this time of brokenness. He has not abandoned us but is calling us to walk closely with him and to walk closely with each other.

During this troubling time, St John's Cathedral has strived to be an open and sacred space for all people, for quiet reflection and for seeking peace and strength from God. Through a series of special services and sharing gatherings we have prayed for our city and learned to listen, respect and support each other despite of our diverse political views. It is a Christian witness that we can walk together and with each other in love and peace. I invite you to join us for our next gathering titled "Evening Prayer For Our City" to be held on Thursday evenings throughout August 2019 at 7.30pm in the Li Hall. Through silence, scripture and singing, we offer our prayers and concerns for our community.

The power of prayer cannot be underestimated. Through our unceasing prayers God is imparting his grace at this difficult time. Please pray for all those who have the power of influence. Pray for the way we express our views to be conducive to the wellbeing of all. Pray that we may continue to be ambassadors of gentleness and peace and agents of hope for others. Pray for all those who have been injured in different incidents. Pray that, justice, reconciliation and peace may fall upon us soon.

The clergy team and I are here to listen, offer our support and pray with you at this challenging time. Please do not hesitate to contact us if we can be of help.

"Do not fear, for I am with you. Do not be afraid, for I am your God." (Isaiah 41:10) My friends, do not lose hope, have faith in Christ and love one another! God bless you all!

 + The Dean
