St John's Cathedral services suspended until further notice

In response to the outbreak of the Coronavirus (COVID-19), and out of love and care for all people, all worship services (including weekday, Saturday and Sunday services) at St John's Cathedral are suspended until further notice. This extraordinary measure, issued by the House of Bishops, is to minimize public gatherings for the health and safety of all. Please consult the Cathedral website for the latest news regarding when the services will be resumed.

Sunday Sung Eucharist in English will be broadcast at 9.00am, Mandarin and Tagalog Said Eucharist will be broadcast at 10.30am through the Cathedral website and on YouTube. Please refer to the cover page for details and join us at these webcast services.

On Sundays, the Cathedral will be open from 10.30am to 3.00pm for private prayers. Clergy will be present to provide pastoral support. A short prayer will also be said at the hour. The Cathedral will be open at the normal hours during weekdays. The prayer at 1.00pm will continue during weekdays even though no public services will be held. Sorry for the inconvenience caused.

As we have entered the holy season of Lent in this very unsettling time, it is important that we humble ourselves before Jesus Christ and allow his love, peace and hope to encourage us. Lent is a time of simplicity and penitence. With heightened spiritual discipline we prepare to walk in the passion, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. May we experience a sense of renewal through the love of Christ in a special way.

Please continue to pray that the virus outbreak will be contained around the world and that those who have been afflicted will be healed soon. We offer our trust to God and extend our care and love for each other in our community. The Cathedral clergy are here to listen and offer support. Should you wish to talk to any one of us, please do not hesitate to contact the cathedral office. May God bless us all!

The Dean
St John's Cathedral

A prayer in time of virus outbreak

God of hope and healing, at this time of a virus outbreak give courage and healing to the sick,
patience to the suffering and comfort to the anxious.
Grant those in authority and the medical personnel wisdom and sensitivity to manage the situation.

Pour your love upon us so we may be an encouragement and help for each other at this time of need.
Abide with us in our going out and coming in.
Protect us all and give us the assurance of your faith, hope and love.

We offer our prayer to Jesus Christ in whose name wholeness, salvation and peace come.
Amen.

COLLECT AND READINGS

COLLECT

Almighty God, whose Son Jesus Christ fasted forty days in the wilderness, and was tempted as we are, yet without sin: give us grace to discipline ourselves in obedience to your Spirit; and, as you know our weakness, so may we know your power to save; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST READING

Romans 5. 12-19

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Romans.

Just as sin came into the world through one man, and death came through sin, and so death spread to all because all have sinned—sin was indeed in the world before the law, but sin is not reckoned when there is no law. Yet death exercised dominion from Adam to Moses, even over those whose sins were not like the transgression of Adam, who is a type of the one who was to come.

But the free gift is not like the trespass. For if the many died through the one man's trespass, much more surely have the grace of God and the free gift in the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abounded for the many. And the free gift is not like the effect of the one man's sin. For the judgement following one trespass brought condemnation, but the free gift following many trespasses brings justification. If, because of the one man's trespass, death exercised dominion through that one, much more surely will those who receive the abundance of grace and the free gift of righteousness exercise dominion in life through the one man, Jesus Christ.

Therefore just as one man's trespass led to condemnation for all, so one man's act of righteousness leads to justification and life for all. For just as many were made sinners, so by the one man's obedience the many will be made righteous.

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

Matthew 4.1-11

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

All Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. He fasted for forty days and forty nights, and afterwards he was famished. The tempter came and said to him, 'If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread.' But he answered, 'It is written, "One does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God."' Then the devil took him to the holy city and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, 'If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down; for it is written, "He will command his angels concerning you", and "On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone."' Jesus said to him, 'Again it is written, "Do not put the Lord your God to the test."' Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendour; and he said to him, 'All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me.' Jesus said to him, 'Away with you, Satan! for it is written, "Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him."' Then the devil left him, and suddenly angels came and waited on him.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, O Christ.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Lord God, you have renewed us with the living bread from heaven; by it you nourish our faith, increase our hope, and strengthen our love: teach us always to hunger for him who is the true and living bread, and enable us to live by every word that proceeds from out of your mouth; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
