THEFT PREVENTION

As with any big city centre, please keep your valuables with you. If you feel unsafe at any time, please let a staff member or sidesman know.

COLLECT

Eternal God, you crown the year with your goodness and you give us the fruits of the earth in their season: grant that we may use them to your glory, for the relief of those in need and for our own well-being; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

FIRST READING

1 Timothy 2.1-7

A reading from first letter of Paul to Timothy.

My dearly beloved, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings should be made for everyone, for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity. This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God; there is also one mediator between God and humankind, Christ Jesus, himself human, who gave himself a ransom for all — this was attested at the right time. For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

Matthew 6.25-33

Hear the Gospel of our Lord
Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

All Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said to his disciples: ‘Do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you—you of little faith? Therefore do not worry, saying, “What will we eat?” or “What will we drink?” or “What will we wear?” For it is the Gentiles who strive for all these things; and indeed your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.’

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, O Christ.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Lord of the harvest, with joy we have offered thanksgiving for your love in creation and have shared in the bread and the wine of the kingdom by your grace plant within us a reverence for all that you give us and make us generous and wise stewards of the good things we enjoy; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

FOR YOUR PRAYERS THIS WEEK

CLERGY

This morning, the Revd Dwight dela Torre and the Revd John Chynchen are leading the services at St Stephen's Chapel, Stanley and Emmanuel Church, Pokfulam respectively.

CURSILLO HONG KONG

This weekend 15 members of SJC and daughter churches will be participating in a Cursillo renewal weekend at the Salesian Retreat House on Cheung Chau.

Cursillo is a short renewal course in Christian living and will be conducted by a team from the Anglican Church in Australia led by Bishop Ian Palmer. The team will be assisted by Fr Robert and Fr Will.

This is the first time Cursillo has been conducted in Hong Kong. Please keep the team and participants in your prayers.

MS HOLLY ALLAN

After serving the cathedral for 17 years as the director of one of the cathedral's outreach ministries HELP for Domestic Workers, Ms Holly Allan, will be leaving the position this week.

Under her leadership and hard work, HELP has grown in quality and scope of service, in providing paralegal service for the domestic workers in dire need. We give thanks to God for her and wish her Godspeed. A presentation will be made by the Dean at the 9.00am service.

St John's Cathedral

Pilgrimage to Shandong, China

Jinan—Taishan—Qufu—Qingdao

8 Days:
10th - 18th May 2019

Led by

The Revd Dr Philip WICKERI (Advisor to the Archbishop on Theological and Historical Studies,
Professor of Church History
in Ming Hua Theological College)

The Revd WU Wai Ho and Adam MOK

Shandong is one of the earliest areas in China that missionaries went to preach and establish the church. Today, it still has a large group of believers and many church buildings of various scales and history.

During the pilgrimage, we will visit the several cities in the province under the arrangement of the Shandong Christian Church. In addition to understanding the development of the church in Mainland and communicating with local church leaders and believers, we will also visit the birthplace of Confucianism, Qufu and the majestic mountain of Taishan.

Information leaflets are available at the back of the church, please take one if you are interested to join.

NEW LAY EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS

We would like to thank all those who have faithfully served over the years as ‘chalice bearers’ at St John’s Cathedral and the Daughter Churches. This liturgical ministry has been a great contribution to the vibrant worship life of our Cathedral congregations and is a vital witness to the importance of authorized lay ministry within the parish.

After consultation with the Archbishop, Cathedral Clergy, and Cathedral Council, the Dean has asked Archbishop Paul to consider giving special permission to some of our current ‘chalice bearers’ to also administer the host (bread) at the distribution of Holy Communion. The Archbishop has readily given his permission and we look forward to, after careful instruction, including this new ministry in our liturgical worship.

This is not as unusual as it may seem. In many provinces of the Anglican Communion it is the common practice for lay people to be given permission by the local bishop to ‘assist with the distribution of Holy Communion’, usually in both kinds. In larger congregations this will mean administering both hosts or chalice at the Eucharist. It is important to remember that Anglicans hold firmly to the belief that the Sacrament of Holy Communion is complete in both kinds – both bread and wine. One is not more holy than the other! The important thing is that the sacrament is consecrated by a bishop or priest, and administered by a duly authorized person.

At St John’s Cathedral this enhancement of our lay liturgical ministry will assist with the smooth running of our Sunday services and free up our priests for other important pastoral and teaching ministries on Sundays. At present we need 5 priests for the administration of Holy Communion at the 9.00am Sung Eucharist – that’s a lot! We hope to be able to reduce this to 3 priests and 2 Lay Eucharistic Ministers for the hosts, plus the usual number of chalice bearers. We hope that you will welcome this new ministry with enthusiasm, and pray for all those who serve at the altar, both ordained and lay.

MICHAELMAS FAIR

Saturday 27th October 2018
10.00am—4.00pm

SALES OF RAFFLE TICKETS

Thanks to the generous help of donors and our own never failing Cathedral staff, we were this week able to send out thousands of raffle tickets to those on our database. If you are lucky enough to be one of those you will discover that for a modest outlay you will have a chance to win the magnificent prizes on offer which this year include some special travel opportunities. Accordingly, do take care to fill in your name and phone number on the ticket stub so that it will be easy for the office staff to contact you and tell you of your good fortune. On the other hand, if there are tickets which you do not want or cannot sell to others, please return them as we can certainly make use of them. The draw will take place as the last item of the Michaelmas Fair programme on Sat 27th October.

Raffle tickets will also be available for sale on Sundays in the Li Hall after the 9am Service or from the Cathedral Office during working hours. Thank you for your support in raising money for the chosen beneficiaries of this year's raffle: St James' Settlement, HKSKH Lady MacLehose Centre, Changing Young Lives Foundation and our own Outreach Ministries at St John's Cathedral, and the essential work that they do.

DONATIONS for :

BOOKSTALL

Please take a good look at your bookshelves, pull out those volumes you will not look at again and donate them to our Second Hand Book-stall. We also invite you to give us CDs and DVDs which you don't want any more. We regret that we cannot take VCDs or magazines. They don't sell!

WINE & BEER GARDEN

Please go through your private cellars and donate bottles of red and white! Please mark 'For Michaelmas Fair Wine Garden'.

WHITE ELEPHANT STALL

Still wondering what to do with the vase you bought at a weak moment? Let us find it a new owner who will love and cherish it. All kinds of items will be gladly received; electronics, paintings, household items, jewelry, home accessories, bric a brac, as long as they are resalable.

*Please bring your donations to the Cathedral office (2523 4157)
