Worship Services at St John's Cathedral suspended until 29th February 2020

In response to the outbreak of the Coronavirus (COVID-19), all worship services (including weekday, Saturday and Sunday services) at St John's Cathedral are suspended from Saturday 15th February to Saturday 29th February. This extraordinary measure is to minimize public gatherings for the health and safety of all. Please consult the Guidelines issued by the House of Bishops of HKSKH for details.

On Sunday 23rd February, the Cathedral will be open from 10.30am to 3.00pm for private prayers. Clergy will be present to provide pastoral support if needed, and also will do a short prayer on the hour.

Sunday Eucharist in English, Mandarin and Tagalog will be broadcast through the Cathedral website and on YouTube. Please refer to the cover page for details.

The Cathedral will be open at the normal hours during weekdays. The noon day prayer will also be continued during weekdays even though no public services will be held. Sorry for the inconvenience caused.

We urge all to pray that the virus outbreak will be contained very soon and that those who have been afflicted will recover speedily. This is a time we lift our trust to God and to extend our care and love for each other in our community. May God bless us all!

St John's Cathedral

A prayer in time of virus outbreak

God of hope and healing, at this time of a virus outbreak give courage and healing to the sick, patience to the suffering and comfort to the anxious.
Grant those in authority and the medical personnel wisdom and sensitivity to manage the situation.

Pour your love upon us so we may be an encouragement and help for each other at this time of need.
Abide with us in our going out and coming in.
Protect us all and give us the assurance of your faith, hope and love.

We offer our prayer to Jesus Christ in whose name wholeness, salvation and peace come.
Amen.

SJC BOOKSTORE Opening Hours during the Epidemic Period
(until further notice)

Weekdays and Saturday: 10.30am—4.30pm
Sunday: 10.30am - 3.00pm

COLLECT

Almighty Father, whose Son was revealed in majesty before he suffered death upon the cross: give us grace to perceive his glory, that we may be strengthened to suffer with him and be changed into his likeness, from glory to glory; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

FIRST READING

2 Peter 1.16-end

A reading from the second letter of Peter.

We did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received honour and glory from God the Father when that voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory, saying, 'This is my Son, my Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.' We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven, while we were with him on the holy mountain.

So we have the prophetic message more fully confirmed. You will do well to be attentive to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. First of all you must understand this, that no prophecy of scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation, because no prophecy ever came by human will, but men and women moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

Matthew 17.1-9

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

All Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. Then Peter said to Jesus, 'Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will make three dwellings here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.' While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud a voice said, 'This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!' When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, 'Get up and do not be afraid.' And when they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone.

As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, 'Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, O Christ.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Holy God, we see your glory in the face of Jesus Christ: may we who are partakers at his table reflect his life in word and deed, that all the world may know his power to change and save. This we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
