COLLECT

The collect can be found in the dedicated booklets for today.

At the 8:00am and 9:00am services today, the prayers including the Collect are specifically put together to give us a public expression of the reality of sin in our world which has brought hurt, anger and grief in our beloved city. We are called to seek forgiveness from God and from one another. We pray for reconciliation with God and with our fellow brothers and sisters. The penitential part of the service together with the celebration of the Eucharist, speak of God's forgiveness, mercy, consolation and grace.

FIRST READING

Genesis 18.20-32

A reading from the book of Genesis.

The LORD appeared to Abraham by the oaks of Mamre and said, 'How great is the outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah and how very grave their sin! I must go down and see whether they have done altogether according to the outcry that has come to me; and if not, I will know.'

So the men turned from there, and went towards Sodom, while Abraham remained standing before the LORD. Then Abraham came near and said, 'Will you indeed sweep away the righteous with the wicked? Suppose there are fifty righteous within the city; will you then sweep away the place and not forgive it for the fifty righteous who are in it? Far be it from you to do such a thing, to slay the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous fare as the wicked! Far be that from you! Shall not the Judge of all the earth do what is just?' And the LORD said, 'If I find at Sodom fifty righteous in the city, I will forgive the whole place for their sake.' Abraham answered, 'Let me take it upon myself to speak to the Lord, I who am but dust and ashes. Suppose five of the fifty righteous are lacking? Will you destroy the whole city for lack of five?'

And he said, 'I will not destroy it if I find forty-five there.' Again he spoke to him, 'Suppose forty are found there.' He answered, 'For the sake of forty I will not do it.' Then he said, 'Oh do not let the Lord be angry if I speak. Suppose thirty are found there.' He answered, 'I will not do it, if I find thirty there.' He said, 'Let me take it upon myself to speak to the Lord. Suppose twenty are found there.' He answered, 'For the sake of twenty I will not destroy it.' Then he said, 'Oh do not let the Lord be angry if I speak just once more. Suppose ten are found there.' He answered, 'For the sake of ten I will not destroy it.'

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

PSALM 138

1 I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, with my whole heart: even before the gods will I sing praise unto thee.
2 I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy Name, because of thy loving-kindness and truth: for thou hast magnified thy Name, and thy Word, above all things.
3 When I called upon thee, thou heardest me: and enduedst my soul with much strength.
4 All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O Lord: for they have heard the words of thy mouth.
5 Yea, they shall sing in the ways of the Lord: that great is the glory of the Lord.
6 For though the Lord be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly: as for the proud, he beholdeth them afar off.
7 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, yet shalt thou refresh me: thou shalt stretch forth thy hand upon the furiousness of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me.
8 The Lord shall make good his loving-kindness toward me: yea, thy mercy, O Lord, endureth for ever; despise not then the works of thine own hands. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

SECOND READING

Colossians 2.6-15

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Colossians.

Brothers and sisters, as you have received Christ Jesus the Lord, continue to live your lives in him, rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving.

See to it that no one takes you captive through philosophy and empty deceit, according to human tradition, according to the elemental spirits of the universe, and not according to Christ. For in him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily, and you have come to fullness in him, who is the head of every ruler and authority. In him also you were circumcised with a spiritual circumcision, by putting off the body of the flesh in the circumcision of Christ; when you were buried with him in baptism, you were also raised with him through faith in the power of God, who raised him from the dead. And when you were dead in trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made you alive together with him, when he forgave us all our trespasses, erasing the record that stood against us with its legal demands. He set this aside, nailing it to the cross. He disarmed the rulers and authorities and made a public example of them, triumphing over them in it.

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

Luke 11.1-13

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

All Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus was praying in a certain place, and after he had finished, one of his disciples said to him, 'Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples.' He said to them, 'When you pray, say:

Father, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come. Give us each day our daily bread. And forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone indebted to us. And do not bring us to the time of trial.'

And he said to them, 'Suppose one of you has a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say to him, "Friend, lend me three loaves of bread; for a friend of mine has arrived, and I have nothing to set before him." And he answers from within, "Do not bother me; the door has already been locked, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot get up and give you anything." I tell you, even though he will not get up and give him anything because he is his friend, at least because of his persistence he will get up and give him whatever he needs. 'So I say to you, Ask, and it will be given to you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you. For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. Is there anyone among you who, if your child asks for a fish, will give a snake instead of a fish? Or if the child asks for an egg, will give a scorpion? If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, O Christ.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

God of our pilgrimage, you have led us to the living water: refresh and sustain us as we go forward on our journey, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

A MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN

Dear Brothers and Sisters of St John's,

I write this message with a heavy heart. Hong Kong has entered a period of immense conflict, division and tumult over the Extradition Bill. On the one hand, our love for Hong Kong, expressed in different ways has demonstrated our keen concerns. On the other hand, we have seen growing frustration, anger, sadness and anguish to occupy our hearts on the future of our beloved home.

Please do not lose hope. The Christian hope is rooted in the transforming power of Jesus Christ who has overcome the power of darkness and delivered us to the new light of his kingdom. It is in a time of darkness such as this that Christ's light shines the brightest. Jesus Christ is grieving with us at this time of brokenness. He has not abandoned us but is calling us to walk closely with him and to walk closely with each other.

During this troubling time, St John's Cathedral has strived to be an open and sacred space for all people, for quiet reflection and for seeking peace and strength from God. Through a series of special services and sharing gatherings we have prayed for our city and learned to listen, respect and support each other despite of our diverse political views. It is a Christian witness that we can walk together and with each other in love and peace. I invite you to join us for our next gathering titled "Listening to God, Listening to One Another" to be held on Saturday, 3rd August 2019 at 10.00am in the Li Hall. Through silence, scripture and small group sharing, we will learn to walk together and find a way forward as a community.

The power of prayer cannot be underestimated. Through our unceasing prayers God is imparting his grace at this difficult time. Please pray for all those who have the power of influence. Pray for the way we express our views to be conducive to the wellbeing of all. Pray that we may continue to be ambassadors of gentleness and peace and agents of hope for others. Pray for all those who have been injured in different incidents. Pray that, justice, reconciliation and peace may fall upon us soon.

The clergy team and I are here to listen, offer our support and pray with you at this challenging time. Please do not hesitate to contact us if we can be of help.

"Do not fear, for I am with you. Do not be afraid, for I am your God." (Isaiah 41:10) My friends, do not lose hope, have faith in Christ and love one another! God bless you all!

 + The Dean
