COLLECT AND READINGS

COLLECT

Almighty God, you have made us for yourself, and our hearts are restless till they find their rest in you: pour your love into our hearts and draw us to yourself, and so bring us at last to your heavenly city where we shall see you face to face; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST READING

Philippians 3.4b-14

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Philippians.

If anyone else has reason to be confident in the flesh, I have more: circumcised on the eighth day, a member of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless. Yet whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ. More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regard them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but one that comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God based on faith. I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by becoming like him in his death, if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or have already reached the goal; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on towards the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus.

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

Matthew 21.33-end

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

All Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people: 'Listen to another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug a wine press in it, and built a watch-tower. Then he leased it to tenants and went to another country. When the harvest time had come, he sent his slaves to the tenants to collect his produce. But the tenants seized his slaves and beat one, killed another, and stoned another. Again he sent other slaves, more than the first; and they treated them in the same way. Finally he sent his son to them, saying, "They will respect my son." But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves, "This is the heir; come, let us kill him and get his inheritance." So they seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?' They said to him, 'He will put those wretches to a miserable death, and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the harvest time.'

Jesus said to them, 'Have you never read in the scriptures: "The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; this was the Lord's doing, and it is amazing in our eyes"?' Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that produces the fruits of the kingdom. The one who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces; and it will crush anyone on whom it falls.'

When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they realized that he was speaking about them. They wanted to arrest him, but they feared the crowds, because they regarded him as a prophet.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, O Christ.

CONGRATULATIONS

We congratulate The Rt Revd Matthias Der who was consecrated on 3rd October 2020. We wish him every good wish and blessing in his new role, and we pray for God's blessing upon him and his ministry.

A Grateful Note from Bishop Matthias

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

It was with great humility and thanksgiving that I was ordained to the Holy Order of Bishops yesterday. It was truly an awesome and humbling experience for me to receive such ministry in the church of God at this time. I regret that due to COVID-19, many of you were unable to attend the consecration service at the cathedral. However, you participated in service through the webcast and I was moved by your love and support. The ministry and people of St John's Cathedral have undoubtedly played an important role in nurturing me over the last 8 years. I thank God for you. I would also like to thank you for the many gifts and good wishes that I have received over the last few weeks. Please continue to pray for me as I prepare for my future ministry that I may always follow the heart of God. God bless you all.

Regards
+ Bishop Matthias

A Prayer for Bishop Matthias

O God, eternal shepherd,
you tend your Church in many ways and rule us with love.
You have chosen your servant, Matthias,
to be our Bishop-coadjutor and shepherd of your flock.
Give him a spirit of courage and right judgment,
a spirit of knowledge and love.
By watching over with fidelity those entrusted to his care,
may he build up your Church here in Hong Kong
and as a sign of salvation for the world.
We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord,
Amen.
