COLLECT

Almighty God, whose most dear Son went not up to joy but first he suffered pain, and entered not into glory before he was crucified: mercifully grant that we, walking in the way of the cross, may find it none other than the way of life and peace; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST READING
Isaiah 55.1-9

A reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah.

The LORD says this: Everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and you that have no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labour for that which does not satisfy? Listen carefully to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in rich food. Incline your ear, and come to me; listen, so that you may live. I will make with you an everlasting covenant, my steadfast, sure love for David. See, I made him a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander for the peoples. See, you shall call nations that you do not know, and nations that do not know you shall run to you, because of the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, for he has glorified you.

Seek the LORD while he may be found, call upon him while he is near; let the wicked forsake their way, and the unrighteous their thoughts; let them return to the LORD, that he may have mercy on them, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 10.1-13

A reading from the first letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, that our ancestors were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, and all ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was Christ. Nevertheless, God was not pleased with most of them, and they were struck down in the wilderness.

Now these things occurred as examples for us, so that we might not desire evil as they did. Do not become idolaters as some of them did; as it is written, 'The people sat down to eat and drink, and they rose up to play.' We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did, and were destroyed by serpents. And do not complain as some of them did, and were destroyed by the destroyer. These things happened to them to serve as an example, and they were written down to instruct us, on whom the ends of the ages have come. So if you think you are standing, watch out that you do not fall. No testing has overtaken you that is not common to everyone. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tested beyond your strength, but with the testing he will also provide the way out so that you may be able to endure it.

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

Luke 13.1-9

Hear the Gospel of our Lord
Jesus Christ according to Luke.

All Glory to you, O Lord.

There were some present who told Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. He asked them, 'Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way they were worse sinners than all other Galileans? No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish as they did. Or those eighteen who were killed when the tower of Siloam fell on them—do you think that they were worse offenders than all the others living in Jerusalem? No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish just as they did.' Then he told this parable: 'A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came looking for fruit on it and found none. So he said to the gardener, "See here! For three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, and still I find none. Cut it down! Why should it be wasting the soil?" He replied, "Sir, let it alone for one more year, until I dig round it and put manure on it. If it bears fruit next year, well and good; but if not, you can cut it down."'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, O Christ.

LENTEN PASTORAL LETTER
FROM THE HKSCH HOUSE OF BISHOPS
2022.03.2

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

‘Do not fear, for I am with you, do not be afraid, for I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my victorious right hand.’ (Isaiah 44:10)

As the pandemic rages on, and as Russia and Ukraine plunge ever deeper into conflict, it is all the more important for us to stay true to our Father’s promise. For he is with us, and he has not abandoned us. When we can look up to him with steadfast faith, and we the faithful can brave the waves together, the time will come when we shall finally reach the shores under the protection of our Lord. Be not afraid, for our Lord Jesus walks with us, and the church is a constant companion in our times of fear and doubt. Whenever you are in need, please contact your clergy who are here for you.

Lent is here, and for forty days it is customary for the church to ask the faithful to undergo a period of simplicity, discipline, and self-denial, such that we can place our lives entirely in the hands of God, and be closer to him. In these forty days, let us dedicate more time to bible reading, praying, meditation, self-reflection, and reading devotional books. Let us allow ourselves to be guided by the Holy Spirit, and be renewed and transformed. Let us turn away from sin, and return to the way of holiness.

Lent is a time we examine the darkness and weaknesses in our lives. The love of God will guide us through the death and resurrection of Christ that we may also overcome darkness and enter the life of light.

There are three main things that we should all take heed of during Lent:

- (1) Fasting is a tradition common amongst many Christians during Lent. In modern times, this would mean cutting off certain pleasures from our daily lives as a form of self-denial, perhaps reducing the hours we spend on the Internet, on video games, online shopping, or how much chocolate we eat. On top of these, it is important that we try to put away the negativity and pessimism that arose from this ongoing pandemic. The virus has been with us for more than two years now, and many feel desperate, lost, and hopeless at the situation. Some find themselves trapped in a dark and dismal state. In this Lent, we need to say ‘No’ to such hopelessness, and let the faithfulness of God and his loving protection be the transforming agent to our negativity and stress. The purpose of Lenten fasting is to teach people not to focus on our weakness, but to understand the greatness and truth of our heavenly father. Let us not be pulled down by the pandemic this year, but rather, raise our eyes to meet the face of God above, and let his tender mercy come upon us. For he is our sure refuge, and with him, we can find the strength and faith to face everything.

- (2) During Lent, as we try to stay away from sins, we should also seek to make our lives well-pleasing to God. As we face rising unemployment, decreasing income, and the prospect of being kept in quarantine or COVID testing, what can we do to glorify God and to help others? We can help those who are in need. For example, teaching the elderly who may not know how to operate all sorts of pandemic-related mobile applications, and who do not know how to find the latest information about the pandemic. We should help those who come from low-income households, that they may live a stable life amidst these uncertainties. We should also check on our brothers and sisters in Christ frequently via phone calls and messages. As we are stuck at home, we should take the opportunity to spend the time understanding our family members better, that our bonds and love may grow deeper. In these difficult times, we are to look after each other, to help one another, and to dedicate even more love and care to those around us. These are the times when we learn to love one another.
- (3) As we pray and meditate throughout this Lent, it is also a great opportunity for us to learn to 'wait'. Though we cannot fully understand God's plans for this pandemic, and while we pray for worldwide recovery, we hold firm the belief that our God is the God of history. As we seek peace in our prayers, we must not forget the infected and their families, and pray that God may heal and protect them. We pray as well for all the front end and support staff who worked tirelessly against the pandemic, especially our medical workers, COVID testers, and government officials. May God grant them wisdom and strength. We pray for those who are waiting to be admitted into hospitals and those who are quarantined at home, that they may find peace and health. May God look with favour upon those who have fallen into economic difficulties, and may God grant us all peace and faith, that we may march on in these pandemic times, and persevere against all odds. May we turn to the example of St Paul, that we could 'Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, and persevere in prayer'. May we find true communion in God through prayers.

The Lenten season is a time for reshaping our lives. With this ongoing pandemic, let us rediscover the truth that our very existence is in the loving care of God. With faith, we may walk each day with God, and with his power we can each day drive back darkness. May God guide us through a meaningful Lent, and may God protect us, that the pandemic may come to an end soon. May his peace prevail, and may God bless each of us.

HONG KONG SHENG KUNG HUI WELFARE COUNCIL DONATION TO THE 'KEEP IT UP! FIGHTING AGAINST THE EPIDEMIC' DONATION PROGRAMME

Elderly and Rehabilitation Homes Urgently need Your Support

With the severe epidemic in the Territories, the 9 elderly homes and 3 rehabilitation homes under the Hong Kong Sheng Kung Hui Welfare Council, with over 1,200 workers and 2,000+ residents, are in dire straits. We urgently need donations to meet the following special expenses.

1. The manpower market for the Homes is very tight. The Homes need to hire temporary workers at 2-3 times the salary together with additional hardship allowances for staff working in the infected areas and accommodation subsidies, resulting in a significant increase in frontline labour costs.
2. To protect our staff and residents, we need a wide range of anti-epidemic supplies on an ongoing basis, including the Rapid Test Kits, Oximeters, disposable gowns, eye protection, protective caps, face masks, surgical masks, disinfectants, etc. We also have to pay for expensive disposal costs of the medical wastes.
3. To ensure the sanitation and cleanliness of the service units, there is an ongoing need for funding to hire qualified suppliers to disinfect the units thoroughly.

HONG KONG SHENG KUNG HUI WELFARE COUNCIL ACT OF LOVE EPIDEMIC HOTLINE

The Covid-19 outbreak has been going on for more than two years and has affected the livelihood of the Hong Kong community. In February this year, the fifth wave of the epidemic began with a raging fury. Recently, the public's use of rapid antigen tests has led to a record number of confirmed cases and a surge in the number of people staying at home for quarantine, who are often at a loss for immediate support.

Given this, the Welfare Council, with the support of the Archbishop, has launched the 'Act of Love Epidemic Hotline' to provide financial assistance, social support, emotional counselling, spiritual support, in-kind donation and information to parishes and the Sheng Kung Hui communities in need. If you need help, please call 8203 9072 or log on to the online platform with the QR code to make an appointment. Our social workers will follow up on the cases.

We also appeal to all brothers and sisters to join us as volunteers to support those affected by the epidemic. Please use the QR code below to register as a volunteer.

Last but not least, we hope that you would support the work of Act of Love by making a generous donation using the QR code below. If you have any enquiries, please contact our social worker, Ms Ami Ying, at 2533 1214.
